SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2022 | 3 PM

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

Anthony Blake Clark, music director

Leo Wanenchak, organ and piano

Choral Arts opens our 57th season with highlights from our tour to Berlin, Prague, and Vienna earlier this month. The tour included a concert under the baton of Marin Alsop with the Vienna Radio Symphony Orchestra and the Choral Space festival concert in the Berliner Philharmonie.

Reena Esmail TaReKiTa

Felix Mendelssohn "Wie der Hirsch Schreit" from Psalm No. 42

Louis-Hector Berlioz "Quaerens me" from Requiem

George Frideric Handel "As pants the heart for cooling streams" from Chandos Anthem No.6

Leonard Bernstein "Bon Voyage" from Candide

Leonard Bernstein Chichester Psalms

IMPORTANT SAFETY NOTICE: We at Baltimore Choral Arts work to prioritize the safety of our singers, staff, and patrons during the COVID-19 pandemic. To ensure the safety of everyone this season, proof of full vaccination against COVID-19 will be required to attend performances. Proof of a negative COVID-19 test will not be acceptable for entry at this time. In keeping with public health and local government guidelines, facemasks will be required at concerts until further notice.
